

Konkurs języka angielskiego na najlepszą opowieść gwiazdkową

3. The boy was smiling. "It's the best moment in my life" he thought

One week before Christmas holiday was very busy for young Dipper. He was helping his grandma in the kitchen and cleaning the rooms. The boy had a big dream. He wanted to see his father, who was in other country. Dipper has never met him before. He knew many things about him from his mum's stories. This year there was a lot of snow everywhere. When you were looking out of the window Christmas came. In the morning dipper was really delighted: "I will see my dad today" he thought. His mum called him to the kitchen. They ate breakfast together, when his mum gave him a postcard from Las Vegas. Dipper looked really sad. The postcard was from his dad. He wanted to coma back home today. They finished breakfast in silence. After that the boy went to the park. It was white everywhere, the bells were ringing. His friends noticed him here and they went to him. Everyone looked at the boy for a while. Then they asked what happened. Why was he sad on the best day of the year? He explained them. His friends surprised him. They were angry at Dipper's dad and they said: "Your dad is an idiot because he wanted to see you. He doesn't even know what he is loosing". In Dipper's eyes it was strange, but he was happy. He didn't know that he had the best friends in the world. "I don't need my dad here. All of my family is here." He said. He thought that Christmas will be the worst one. Friends were smiling and laughing. The boy was smiling, too. "It's the best moment in my life" he thought. After that they were spending time together, when Dipper's mum called him to come back home.

Martyna Świerska klasa I GW

I miejsce

