3. The boy was smiling. "It's the best moment in my life" he thought

Hubert is a 10-year-old boy. He is short and skinny. Most of his life he lived in an orphanage. His parents died when he was a little baby. Since then he was moving from one family to another or again to the orphanage. His protector never treated him well. Sometimes he was beaten and sometimes he didn't eat. But a month before Christmas Eve he found a new family. He was adopted by a young married couple. They couldn't have their own kids, so they decided to take care of Hubert. They spent a lot of time with him and quickly loved him. This month went very quickly and finally it was Christmas Eve. Since the morning the family was outside and they were playing and making a snowman. After midday they went home and started to prepare supper and set the table. After a couple of hours of hard work they started to eat supper. After that it was time for carols and presents. Under a Christmas Tree there were a lot of gifts. The boy was smiling "It's the best moment in my life" he thought. He got his dream thing. He finally was in the place where he is loved and he had somebody who took care of him.
