

The snow was falling and it was frosty Winter. Christmas was coming but she wasn't sure if it's going to be a good time. But from the beginning... In a small quiet town lived a family- a girl named Kate and her parents. The girl was smart and she had a good heart. She was helping everyone in the town and she didn't want anything in return. Kate went to school and when she returned she spent time with her parents on playing and laughing. They were a happy family because their hearts were full of love. Unfortunately it was a one day in a year when the girl felt unhappy. It was Christmas Eve. On that day, when after all the preparations they had to sit by the table together, her father left the house. With a great regret Kate said goodbye to her father, not understanding why he was leaving her on this beautiful day when the family should be together. From year to year when the girl grew up, she was more angry with her dad for leaving her and her mother on Christmas Eve. She was sorry that she couldn't be with him and enjoy his presence. When Kate turned eighteen and when Christmas Eve came again her father had to leave the house again. The girl was very upset, she told her father that he was hurting her feelings, going out on such an important day, hoping he would stay. But the man had to leave, although it wasn't very easy for him. After a while a gold letter in a shape of a plane flew out of the chimney. It was addressed to Kate. In the letter was:

" Dear Kate'

You have given joy and happiness to people around you from your birth. First of all, because you were our Christmas miracle. Later for people in the town who you have been helping for so many years. You have a pure heart, courage and honor, that is why I am writing this letter to you. It's time to know the truth, but first..."

Suddenly a red dress appeared on the girl, resembling the outfit of Santa Claus.

"...I hope you enjoy it because today you are my helper.

Your father Santa Claus"

She couldn't believe what she was reading. She ran out of the house and outside she saw a beautiful red sledges, seven reindeer and her father. With tears in her eyes she said she loved him. A moment later they were in the sledges on their way to other towns. After all the children are waiting for presents.

All in all that winter was frosty but it was the best winter in her life.
