

In the picture I can see me and my dog, Koko. I took this photo at the seaside, in Darłówko. We are sitting on the wall, near breakwaters. We are posing to the photo. I was very excited, because it was my first trip with Koko. The town we were, is worth recommending, because it has a lot of restaurants, for example Italian restaurant, also Darłówko has enormous beach and this is very important for me, because I love tanning. In the background there is a stretched sea, also there are breakwaters. The sky has beautiful, blue color. I am wearing light blue hoodie and jeans with holes, flip flops and bag. I have tied hair. The weather is favorable, because/as the sun is shining and it's not raining. The atmosphere is excellent, because I was with my family, we are resting and having fun together, you can see it from my smile. This trip was successful and I would repeat it.
