

The photo was done in Toruń and it shows the most beautiful evening of holidays. In front of the Vistula river, there is a panorama of Old Town. It makes me feel proud and very happy, because I love the moment, which I caught on the photography. I have fond memories of one of several best days of holidays which I spent with my boyfriend. I really recommend that place, because at sunset it makes a magical atmosphere.