

Temat: „The icy lake was reflecting the moonlight. It was a frosty Christmas evening and the girl had no place to go...”

In a frosty evening, the day before Christmas, a young girl was walking around the park with no clue what to do. She was cold and tired, looking for her family that she lost in a supermarket this morning. Meanwhile, in the middle of the lake she saw a pretty bright object that was strangely calling her and saying to go for it. In one moment the girl was on an icy lake and tried to catch it. The ice wasn't very thick and strange noises started to come out of it. When she reached the point and caught it the ice cracked under the girl and she fell into the freezing water of the lake. She didn't know what to do, but suddenly a mysterious object started talking to her and it turned out that this was a magic spirit sent by Santa and if someone manages to catch it it will make one dream come true. She thought for a while and said :”I wish I could go home for Christmas”. As quickly as it was possible the girl woke up in her bed in her house on the 24th of December. The first thing that came to her mind was „ I am dreaming”, but this happened for real and for the rest of her life the Christmas spirit never left her.
