The icy lake was reflecting the moonlight. It was a frosty Christmas evening and the girl had no place to go. She was devastated. She had no family or friends. Suddenly she heard some weird noises. It was something like bells ringing but she wasn't sure. She thought that she was going crazy. She started looking around because she was frightened. Then, out of nowhere Santa Claus appeared. She almost fainted.

„What's your name you poor child?” he asked.

„Kate”: she said so quietly he could barely hear her. Kate thought that it was a dream, that he couldn't be real.

„Why are you sitting here all alone Kate?”: Santa asked with a pity.

She told him the whole story about herself. He was a very sympathetic man so he asked: “Would you like to spend Christmas with me and my close ones?”.

She wasn't really sure about it but he insisted so he agreed. Santa took Kate's hand and they were in a different place.

„ You teleported us!”: asked Kate in a shock.

He didn't say anything, he just took her to his magical house. Santa's wife welcomed them. All the elves came to meet the girl. They all had a breathtaking Christmas dinner. And that's the story about Kate who gained a family in one evening.
