Santa Claus was in front of him

I remember one magical thing that happened to my little cousin on Christmas day . When we were making a snowman and also fighting with snow balls my mom called us for dinner. We went in and the soup was so good. After that we were told that we would be going to a Christmas event in our city and we could meet Santa Claus. But I knew that he didn't exist. My little cousin Patrick was in heaven after hearing that we would meet Santa Claus. We played for little bit and after that we drove to the town. There were a lot of beautiful stands, a lot of good food but the most favorite food was gingerbread. After eating and drinking we wanted to meet Santa Claus. My cousin was disappointed after he touched his beard and it was fake, he cried. I decided to take him to a forest near the lake. He told me it was beautiful and magical there. Just when he finished speaking I fainted. He told me that when he was screaming for help he turned around and froze. It was a real Santa Claus with his buddy Rudolf in front of him. Patrick begged him to help me but Santa told him that he did it on purpose just to see Patrick. He couldn't believe it. They talked for a few hours. Then someone came to the forest so Santa Claus gave my cousin a glass snowball that can predict the future and left. After that I woke up and Patrick was hugging me. He told me everything but i didn't believe him until he showed me the glass snowball that Santa Claus gave him. We went home and he used it a couple of times. It was true and now I believe in Santa Claus.
